*Elders elected to preside in absence of a bishop.

In 1844 the great division occurred, and in 1845 the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was organized. Continuous activity in Holston Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church was abandoned until the close of the Civil War. In 1865 the Holston Conference was reorganized at Athens, Tenn., under the Presidency of Bishop David W. Clark.

MEMOIRS

REV. JOHN JENKINS MANKER, D. D.

John Jenkins Manker was born in Fincastle, Ohio, Dec. 24, 1839, and died at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 16, 1916. His parents were Rev. John Manker and Sarah Wright Manker. His grandfather, William Manker, was a Revolutionary soldier, and was in the war with the Indians, having helped to build the first Block House where Cincinnati now stands.

In 1858 our subject entered the Ohio Wesleyan University where he remained until, answering his country's call in 1861, he enlisted in the 50th Ohio Volunteers, serving four years, first as private, then as Lieutenant, and later as Captain. In May, 1862, he was wounded in battle at Princeton, W. Va.

In 1863 Dr. Manker was married to Miss Julia Tarbell of Ripley, Ohio. She died at Greeneville, Tenn., in 1880. He was married to Miss Ida Kirk of Chattanooga in 1891. His second wife passed away sixteen years ago. He is survived by the following children: Myron W. Manker, Paul A. Manker, Mrs. Edith Manker Patten, and Miss Elizabeth Manker, all of Chattanooga.

He joined Holston Conference at Greeneville, Tenn., May 17, 1866, and served as follows: 1866-1867, East Knoxville; 1867-1868, Athens; 1869, Tutor in E. T. W. University; 1870-1871, Cleveland; 1872-1874, Presiding Elder Knoxville District; 1875-1876, First Church, Knoxville; 1877-1879, Greeneville; 1880-1883, Pastor First Church, Chattanooga; 1883-1885, Financial Agent by appointment, but actually Pastor First Church, Chattanooga; 1884-1885, Presiding Elder Chattanooga District; 1886-1889, Professor in Chattanooga University; 1889-1890, Presiding Elder Chattanooga District; 1890-1892, Highland Park; 1893-1895, First Church, Chattanooga; 1895-1900, Presiding Elder Chattanooga District; 1901-1902, Presiding Elder Knoxville District; 1903-1904, Professor Theology in University; 1904-1916, Editor Methodist Advocate Journal. From 1870 to 1879 he was Secretary of the Conference.

He was elected as a delegate to the General Conferences of 1876, 1884, 1908, and 1916.

From the time of his coming among us the climate, the work, and the people found such a place in his heart that he never even seriously thought of transferring to other fields. As history records, the position of our beloved Holston was peculiar. Division of sentiment, bristling with fiery antagonisms, fixed us in the gaze of the nation, so when the time came for us to occupy, in order to assert ourselves with helpfulness, great wisdom in policy and Christliness in spirit were necessary. We planned under the guiding hand of the Clarks, the Simpsons, the Cobleys, the Fullers, and others. To say there were no mistakes is to say that we are not human. We have succeeded gloriously. In what we are and what we have done, our beloved Manker is a part. In our educational policy, which culminated in the Chattanooga University, Dr. Manker was designated by the proper authority to select the ground, and the Board of Trustees for the University.

Called to the highest places of trust and honor by his Conference, invariably he gave a good account of his stewardship. Possibly the Stone Church at Chattanooga, Tennessee, is his most noteworthy monument. Starting with the idea of a ten thousand dollar church, the enterprise found its consummation in the present artistic structure, costing sixty-five thousand dollars. In order to bring this enterprise to success he cut hickory canes from the battlefields of Mission Ridge, Lookout Mountain and Chickamauga and sold them in various states, thus raising thousands of dollars to replenish the revenues of this undertaking. This service alone puts our departed Brother in the class of the man of whom the Bible said, "His raiment was camel's hair and his meat locusts and wild honey."

Touching his death the ten editors of our Connectional papers adopted the following in regard to their associate and co-editor:

"The imperative order which came to Dr. Manker found him at his post doing battle for the interests committed to him, and which he defended with his latest heart beat. He had arisen in the meeting of the General Conference Committee on Book Concern, and standing beside the altar of the Methodist Church, began an intensely earnest appeal in behalf of the church press. He had uttered the words, "I have preached the Gospel of Christ for fifty years," "Excuse me," when the sentence came to an end and his soul passed on.

We, his brothers and comrades in the editorial ranks of the church, long since learned to respect him for his substantial talents, to emulate the virtues of simplicity, sincerity and loyalty which stamped the sterling metal of his manhood, and to love him for the gentleness, purity and sympathy of his spirit. He fell while pleading our common cause. It was true to his whole career that he was found on duty to the last, and of him as of the French hero it may be answered when the roll of the faithful is called: "Dead on the field of honor."

As his associates we wish to record this expression of our sense of personal loss, and of our heartfelt sympathy with his sorrowing children. Our common prayer is that they may be sustained both by the consciousness of his useful and noble life and by that strength that comes from the Heavenly Father on whom his trust was firmly stayed."

His funeral was held at the Stone Church, Chattanooga, 2 p. m., May 20, 1916. Dr. John H. Race in charge, assisted by Dr. L. A. Swisher, Dr. Wesley W. Hooper, Dr. Fred W. Hixson, Dr. J. W. Bachman, Dr. W. S. Bovard, Dr. R. M. Millard. Following the service at the church, the interment was in Forest Hills cemetery.

A glorious half century of service for the Master, less one day. It seems eminently appropriate that he should find his last sleep in our midst. "He hath done what he could."

"Oh, how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
 So free from all sorrow and pain;
 With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands,
 To meet one another again."

JAMES A. RUBLE.

JOHN A. PATTEN

John Alanson Patten was born September 27, 1867, at Delaven, Illinois, a son of Major George W. and Charlotte Holmes Patten. With his parents Mr. Patten came to Chattanooga in December, 1883. He was united in marriage October 2, 1890, to Miss Edith Manker, daughter of the Rev. J. J. Manker, of the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He died in Chicago, Ill., April 26, 1916.

John Alanson Patten was a large man—large physically, intellectually, spiritually. He had unusual mental powers. His native mentality was illuminated and strengthened and requisitioned for service by his Christian experience. Mr. Patten was a self-educated man. Education for himself and for others was a passion with him. In his home he surrounded himself with standard books, books of abiding worth; and he was continually adding to his library the latest books. Upon the table was to be seen a long list of the best magazines and papers of the day. It is a matter for marvel how one whose hours were crowded with other duties could find time to garner into his mind so much of the real substance of so many books and current publications. He kept the dust from his mind as well as from his heart. He was in the true sense an educated man. His vocabulary, the substance of his conversation, his comments upon men and institutions and passing events gave evidence of this. Not having had the advantage of a college education, he was nevertheless at home in his thinking and conversation with bishops and ministers and professors and the best minds of the community.

Mr. Patten's interest in education was not confined to his own denomination. Those of us who have seen even a small portion of the receipts and vouchers for his donations know that he gave with a lavish hand to the Young Men's Christian Association, to educational institutions, of various kinds in the South and the North.

But how shall we speak of his service to the cause of education within the Holston Conference. How generously he gave of prayer and time and effort and money to raise up an educated ministry among us. The educational advance of this Conference and particularly the conspicuous advance in the matter of the educational equipment of the ministry of the Holston Conference is deeply indebted to Mr. Patten. He was the constant friend, the wise counselor, the untiring helper, the princely benefactor of the University of Chattanooga. The successful campaign of this institution for a half million dollars for buildings and endowment would not have been achieved without him.

Mr. Patten's intellectual gifts and intellectual development, together with the other large endowments of his personality, made him an acknowledged leader. He was recognized as the first citizen of Chattanooga. He not only held high office in the church but he was a power in her affairs. For instance, after a memorable discussion in which Mr. Patten was opposed by some of the greatest leaders of our denomination a certain policy in the work of the Freedmen's Aid Society advocated by Mr. Patten, was adopted and is still in operation. He had unusual ability as a public speaker. Before great gatherings of business men, before Laymen's Associations, before Annual or General Conferences he was equal to the occasion.

That which distinguished Mr. Patten even more than his intellectual power was his spiritual life. He owed much to his parentage. He came from a good home. His splendid Christian father and mother gave him the inestimable blessing of a good name, the example of righteous living, the benediction of true parental love, and the many hallowed and powerful influences of a Christian home. He early gave his life to the Savior. He early became a member of Christ's Church and in the Church of Christ he developed that strong and tender Christian character that served so mightily in the kingdom of his Lord.

Mr. Patten had crowned Christ as King of his life. He told me that he and his family had tried to make the Church the center even of their social life. He loved Christ. He loved Christ's church. He gave to the church generously—even with sacrifice. He gave with marvelous liberality of his time, his strength, his thought, his money. I have heard him declare that for twenty years out of his waking hours he had given twice as many hours to the church as he had given to his private business. Has such devotion in any other man ever come under the observation of any of us? His record in the Methodist Episcopal Church is unique. He was Chairman of the Book Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church which is usually considered the highest office in our Church to which a layman is eligible. He gave himself in beautiful devotion to the upbuilding of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Chattanooga. He was the ablest, the best known and the most influential layman this Church has ever had. I would not overstate the matter, but I think it can be fairly said that this one life has brought more ecclesiastical honor to this church than all other members of the church throughout its history. But John Patten was too great a man to care for a meaningless office or an empty honor. His life was a life of service. He was the organizer of the Men's Class of the First Church of Chattanooga and since his death this class has been formally named "The Patten Brotherhood Class." He was a member of the Board of Federation of the Methodist Churches. He was a member of the Board of Managers of the Freedmen's Aid Society. He was elected as delegate from the Holston Lay Electoral Conference to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for every quadrennium since 1900.

Often the supreme test of one's religion is its practice at home. Many a man bears a great name in a far country and is little thought of at home. John Patten's life shone with clearest light at home. None knew the genuineness of his character or the sweetness of his spirit so well as the folks who in church and office and street and home met him month after month and day after day. The people who knew him best loved him the most. His great personality shone resplendent in the high offices to which he was elected. I believe a greater test of genuine love was the test in his home church and here his life was truly a marvel. One man said of him, "There is one thing about John Patten I want to mention. You can never ask him to do anything for the church but that he not only does it but does it at the hour you ask him to do it." He might be closeted with a committee concerning large financial interests. The committee might have come from a distance; but when 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon drew near Mr. Patten would excuse himself and go to the meeting of the Advisory Committee of the local church. He very rarely missed teaching his Sunday School Class, even though it required a long railroad journey to be present in Chattanooga on Sunday morning. Always through the years and especially in the last year of his life, when almost overborne with the extreme weariness from labor and from anxiety for his church and his loved ones, he was found regularly in his place in the sanctuary morning and evening. The evening might be very hot or very cold, a storm of rain or sleet or snow might be a foregone conclusion before leaving his home that very few people would venture out in such weather, but he would be in his place in the service. "Go home and tell to thy friends what great things the Lord hath done for thee," said the Master to one whom He had healed. Unostentatiously, earnestly, honestly, unselfishly, sacrificially, John A. Patten lived the gospel and told the gospel to the people among whom he lived.

A most beautiful thing about the giving of Mr. Patten was not the amount of his benefactions but the manner and motive of his giving. His giving was the giving of love. He made the recipient feel that he was doing the donor a kindness to receive the gift. The supreme characteristic of Mr. Patten's life was love. God is love and the lives of his children are characterized by love. "Faith, hope and love; these three, but the greatest of these is love." Mr. Patten went through life making himself the good Samaritan unto thousands. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto Me!" Then how beautifully did our great friend serve the Master! Mr. Patten's compassion was not the weak sentiment of a weak personality. He was nothing if not strong. His compassion was the genuine love of a strong virile manly personality; and his love did not evaporate in emotion but crystalized in deeds of mercy and help. He loved God. We can still hear the accents of his voice saying, as he said so often at the beginning of a public prayer, "Dear Father." His love for Christ and for Christ's humanity amounted to a passion. He had a passion to help. He believed in Christ's doctrine, "the extra." "If any man will compel thee to go with him a mile, go with him twain." "Give to him that asketh of thee and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away." He was "the Herald of a Passion." "Hereby perceive we the love of God because He laid down His life for us and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren."

One of the products of Christianity is the Christian home and a man's character is revealed in his home. Mr. Patten's home life was ideal. His wife was the daughter of one of the most distinguished and honored and faithful ministers of the Holston Conference. The fine spirit of sacrifice and service and humility and fidelity to God learned in a Methodist parsonage she has carried through all the years in her own home. The beautiful Christian character, obedience and filial love found in his children speak eloquently of the genuineness of the father's and the mother's life. His home was to Mr. Patten a refuge and an inexpressible comfort.

In the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Chattanooga no name stands with John A. Patten. No bishop, no pastor, no layman has filled so large a place in the life of the church as he. In the Holston Conference, layman though he was, his devotion to the Master's work, his marvelous liberality, his saintly character, his heart of love, places him not only in the ranks of the laymen but also in the ranks of Christ's true ministers. Human hands had not been placed upon him in ordination, but God's hands had touched him. Philanthropist, patriot, friend, brother, saint of God, we trust thee to God's unfailing care. In our pilgrimage here below we hail thee in the Land of the Eternal Morning.

LEONARD A. SWISHER.

REPORTS

BRISTOL DISTRICT

E. O. WOODYARD, Superintendent

The Virginia Conference of which the Bristol District is a part was organized in 1868. It might be of interest to note that the present Bristol District embraces the same territory as the Abingdon District at the time of the organization.

Ten years ago when the Virginia Conference dissolved, the Abingdon, now the Bristol District, was added to the Holston Conference, and since we have closed the first decade of Holston oversight, it is well that we look at the results to see if we have played prodigal to the area. Ten years ago there were in this area 4440 full members, now 8,226. There was paid for support of pastors $5,137; for support of District Superintendent, $598. This year, to pastors, $10,621; to District Superintendents, $1,228. There were 68 church buildings, valued at $60,310, now there are 104, valued at $160,101; 11 parsonages, valued at $7,800, now 15, valued at $15,400. There were 70 Sunday Schools with an enrollment of 4,343; now there are 121, with an enrollment of 10,643. Ten years ago there were 25 charges, manned by 5 conference men, 5 undergraduates, and 15 supplies; there are at present 26 charges, manned by 4 conference men, 6 undergraduates, and 16 supplies.

Changes in Appointments and Preachers During the Present Year.

Save in three instances the appointments stand as they were made at the conference last fall. In December the Wise Mission was placed back with the Wise charge. In January John W. May was released from the Wise charge to become pastor at Blackwood, a union coal mining church for which we are asked to furnish a pastor. W. S. Robinette was secured to finish out the year's work at Wise. In January Levi Murray was released from the Russell charge and A. V. Dye was secured to fill out the year. In one or two instances the work has moved very slowly, but all the rest of the charges have had a very fruitful year.

Dedications and Church Buildings.

Five new churches have been dedicated on the district this year. In May, the District Superintendent, assisted by Rev. A. H. Ingle, dedicated, free from debt, the Free Hill church on the Greendale charge, cost about $1,000. On the 5th Sunday in July the District Superintendent dedicated on the Lafayette charge, the Ironto church, cost $1100, all paid. On August 20th, H. G. Osborne, pastor of Rose Hill charge, dedicated Chances Chapel, cost about $700, debt all provided for. On the 4th Sunday in September Dr. Hurley, Presiding Elder of the M. E. Church South, dedicated Oak Grove, an Union church of our own and the Southern church. He was assisted by A. A. King, one of our local preachers. The cost of the church was about $1,200, all paid for. On October 8th the District Superintendent dedicated Brumley Gap church, on the Glenford charge. This church takes the place of the one that was burned down last winter. The cost of the church was about $1,000, all paid. There is being erected in the town of Pennington, Va., a new $5,000 brick veneered church, the best church in Lee county, Virginia. We had hoped to dedicate this church before Conference, but unavoidable delays have made it impossible. It will be ready for dedication about the first of November. T. J. Crumley is the pastor and church builder. Four other churches on the district are in the process of erection, and will be completed during the coming year. We have also accepted during the year one-fourth interest in Union Chapel Rose Hill charge, and one-fourth interest in Texas Chapel, Riner charge.

Ministerial Support.

One of the crucial problems of the Bristol District is the one of Ministerial Support. Many of the pastors have a very inadequate support, and much of what they do receive is in produce and only enough of that to eke out a poor living. Some of our pastors do not receive enough that they can afford to keep a conveyance, and they are compelled to walk from appointment to appointment, some of which are miles apart. We are glad to note an increase in pastoral support, and were it not for two or three charges falling several dollars behind last year we would have shown a good rate of increase.

Membership.

929 Members have been received this year, the most notable gains being on the Lafayette, Rose Hill, Bristol, St. Charles and Swords Creek charges. All the other charges save three have made good gains. Although we have received this large number of members, yet the net gain in full membership will not be so large as last year. The Oakvale charge with 166 members was given to the West Virginia Conference. Counting this loss and loss otherwise, we will still show a good gain.

Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies.

There are on the district 122 Sunday Schools, a gain of one over last year. The total enrollment of these 122 schools is 10,643, a small increase over last year. The increase last year over the preceding years was so large that we feel we have done well to hold up the record of last year.

There have been two new Epworth Leagues organized on the district this year. We have now on the district seven Epworth Leagues and three Junior Leagues, all these are doing good work. We are hoping for a better day in the young people's work on the district.

Laymen's Work.

We have tried to emphasize the importance of Laymen's work on the district and in a measure we have made some progress, especially in the eastern section of the district, and in the Gate City section. We feel the work done by these laymen will have good and lasting results.

District Conference.

There was held in August at the New River Church, Christian-burg charge a very helpful and profitable District Conference. It was well attended and the people in the eastern end of the district appreciated it because there had not been a District Conference nearer than 100 miles of them for several years.

It is well known that it is a mission field and the prospects of growth were never brighted than they are today. Our people in Virginia are waking up as they have never wakened before to their opportunities. There is no reason with our present rate of progress, but that in a few years this will be as strong numerically and financially as any other section of the Conference.

In our humble way we have tried to faithfully perform the work that was assigned to us last Conference. During the year we have held all the 102 Quarterly Conferences in person, preached 330 times, visited 487 different homes, baptised 23, received 17 into full connection in the church, dedicated three churches, traveled 8991 miles, 7904 by railroad, 540 on horseback, in buggies, wagons and autos, walked 522 miles. This just represents the amount of travel necessary to reach the Quarterly Conferences, and other points incident to a District Superintendent's work.

Thanking Divine Providence for His goodness towards me and for an opportunity to work in his vineyard, I submit my second report from the Bristol District.

CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT

J. A. Mitchell, Superintendent

We have tried to keep in mind throughout the year the things that make for the building up of the Kingdom of God, and the increasing of the spiritual life of His people, and we can truthfully say that on the Chattanooga District the Kingdom of God is growing, and that our people are more spiritual than they were a year ago.

Changes.—Rev. M. C. Bruner, who was appointed to the Copper Hill charge, soon after Conference adjourned, was changed to Englewood, leaving Copper Hill to be supplied; I found it difficult to get a man for the place, and Brother Byrd of Etowah was asked to look after the work at Copper Hill in connection with his work at Etowah, which he did with much success, having paid $1200.00 on the church debt there this year.

Rev. R. F. Porter, pastor at Cleveland, was in April transferred by Bishop Henderson to the Saint Johns River Conference, and Rev. W. S. Gray of the Saint Johns River Conference was transferred to the Holston Conference and stationed at Cleveland, where he has had large success for the time he has been there.

Some of our pastors began their revival work early in the conference year, and this work has been persistently followed up on nearly every charge on the district, which has resulted in a large number of conversions, and a gain of more than ten per cent to our Church Membership.

This has been a year of debt paying. Many of our churches have made strenuous efforts this year to pay all their debts. The St. James church had a debt of $12,500 at the beginning of the year, including the accumulation of interest, and through the persistent efforts of the pastor and the Official Board this debt has been provided for.

The Manker Memorial church has paid their debt of $600 and the church and parsonage are now free from all debt.

Our First church at Athens has not only provided for their debt, but have installed a splendid pipe organ at a cost of $3,000, which has added much in every way to the services of this church.

Our church at Highland Park has also installed this year a fine pipe organ which is said to be one of the best organs in the city, and have also provided for the debt on the church.

The sum of $10,200 has been paid in improvements on churches and parsonages during the year. And a new church has been built at Coalmont on the Tracy City circuit at a cost of $1500. At Englewood we have built this year a fine parsonage which will cost about $1500.

The Sunday School work on the district is in a most excellent condition. Great care is exercised in the election and confirmation of Superintendents, our most competent and best workers are chosen for this office, and we have had a nice increase in our enrollment this year.

The Epworth Leagues and Junior Leagues are in most places doing good work, some of our Leagues are pursuing a systematic course of study, and the Junior Leagues are studying the catechism.

The Chattanooga University and its affiliated school at Athens has had a very prosperous year, the total enrollment was the largest in its history, and the new year opens with large attendance.

The pastors' salaries have almost all been collected in full, some of them were small, too small, we are sorry to say, but we are hoping for an increase in the future.

As to my own work a brief word will do. Through a good Providence I have been permitted to personally attend all the Quarterly Conferences during the year, and have not been kept from any engagement because of ill health or bad weather. Many special meetings have been held; I have visited the weak points, and have tried to build up the waste places; I have assisted the pastors in revival meetings, and have tried to carefully look after all the details of the work.

To God who gives us grace for all good work, and who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in Christ Jesus, we render hearty thanks.

HARRIMAN DISTRICT.

E. M. Martin, Superintendent.

We bring you our Fifth Annual Report. It is not all that we desire; but more favorable conditions would have allowed better results. When our last session adjourned at Athens October 18, 1915, we had by appointment 28 regular charges and one Mission. For each charge a man had been appointed. But the lines were quickly broken. Robt. B. Stansell, appointed to Harriman, the best charge in the District, wired from Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 28, informing me of his election to the Field Secretaryship of Asbury Hospital, an institution of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and requested my consent together with that of Bishop Henderson, to his transfer to the Northern Minnesota Conference. Though disconcerting to the plans of the district, we gave our consent and urged Bishop Henderson to grant transfer.

Our task was to readjust men to care for the broken line. Bishop Henderson was 3,000 miles away on duty at the Bishop's Meeting and Boards of the Church in California. We could have made adjustment of men without consulting him. But we did not presume to do so. We wired our recommendations and he gave approval by telegram. D. R. Haney was moved from Jellico to Harriman; W. A. Martin from Crossville and Clarkrange to Jellico;

W. C. Martin from Byington and Scarboro to Crossville and Clark-range. A. B. McKenzie, one of the two men appointed to LaFollette and Jacksboro, was placed at Byington and Scarboro, leaving H. M. Torrey in charge of full field at LaFollette and Jacksboro. J. S. Yearly announced as supply for the Morgan Springs charge early notified me that he could not enter upon duties of the work and we procured the services of G. F. Swafford, who later took charge of the circuit.

A. M. Rose, a regular conference appointee to the New Tazewell circuit, entered the field and worked until the last days of December and asked to be released because the outlook did not indicate adequate support. Bishop Henderson, on my recommendation, granted the release. His work was divided between W. J. Letsinger and F. T. Munsey on adjoining charges.

George H. Long, a supply appointed to Burrville circuit, made good until near the middle of April. But the latter part of said month offered his resignation. This was accepted and arrangements made to place Noel Cardwell, who was in May to finish the year's work in our Athens School.

Bro. Cardwell entered upon his duties first day in June and made a fine record. The financial depression upon us last year and which has still been felt more or less this year, has made it unfavorable to start new enterprises. The proposed unification of the two Methodisms has also delayed our contemplated church buildings at some points.

Our outlay on new buildings, repairs and old indebtedness was over $5000.00. A much needed parsonage begun last year has been so nearly completed this year on the Big Valley circuit as to allow the pastor, J. F. Lynch, with his family, to occupy the same for nine months. The people of Rockwood, led by the heroic leadership of H. E. Little, put in an addition to the church costing $900. This was done after paying off an indebtedness of $1300.

The next largest liquidation of indebtedness was on the Har-riman District Parsonage. On this has been applied $757, leaving an indebtedness of only $110. The amount invested now reaches nearly $3500.

The revival work has been general this year. But the results have not equalled those of some former years.

Four of the pastors have failed to this hour to furnish me with data desired for report on this matter. The tabulated results show that we have had on the charges making special reports: 756 conversions and 592 accessions. This will probably show a net increase of membership of near 500 members on the district.

The various organizations on the district have about maintained their normal standing. We have one each of the Woman's Home and Foreign Societies, twenty Ladies' Aid Societies with a good membership, five Junior Epworth Leagues and thirteen Senior Epworth Leagues with tabulated membership respectively of 248 and 429.

The tabulation on Sunday Schools will show something like 102 schools with an enrollment about 8,000. Along with this we have four Home Departments and 13 Cradle Rolls.

The Annual Spring Rally of the Epworth Leagues of the Holston Conference was the most largely attended convention for a half dozen years and showing equal interest to all former years blessed and honored the headquarters of the District for three days and nights in the month of April.

The District Conference convening at Jacksboro the latter part of July was a gathering of much interest. We lacked our usual number of visiting leaders. But our own pastors and laymen put themselves into the conference in great shape. W. J. Lewis, the invincible worker in Gospel Team service, was with us. Dr. G. T. Francisco beat himself in his fine address on Sunday morning and Dean R. M. Millard of the Athens School preached to splendid advantage on Sunday and fairly won all hearts.

Without the last figures before us, giving results over Sunday, we cannot be accurate in reporting the results on salaries, Conference collections and benevolences. But note this: Our field has been all these years a difficult field to win collections. And subject to fluctuations because of the situations created by lumber camps, mining camps and the largeness of loss from strawberry and peach crops at times owing to these crop failures. We have not fully recovered from the financial depression so evident last year. Then the lower end of the district was seriously affected by crop failures mentioned above. We think, however, that the record will be about saved on the support of the pastors as a whole and possibly show some increase over last year. But fear the benevolences will show a falling off due not only to above causes, but also to the neglect of pastors to begin early in the year to handle these matters.

Our greatest apprehension is for the collection for the Conference Claimants. We have done so well for this cause near to our hearts. And with the aid of some friendship money for the past two years, have led the whole conference in per capita giving on this cause. But we closed the year without this aid and had to leave the men after placing before them again and again the law of prorating, on their own conscience as well as on their limitations in carrying it out. If we show serious losses, we shall profoundly regret it. We have handled the work on the district in person, as has been our custom. Have only failed to meet two engagements during the entire year—then we substituted.

We have held 109 Quarterly Conferences and several adjourned sessions and superintended the work of one Mission where no quarterly conferences have been required. Have preached upon an average of five times each week. Whether effective or not, we have been in labors abundant.

JOHNSON CITY DISTRICT

Rev. Samuel G. Ketrion, Superintendent

In presenting the report of my fifth year's superintendency over the Johnson City District I wish to acknowledge in the beginning my profound gratitude to my ever-present God for His loving kindness and His guiding Spirit, which has presided over all my labors and blessed them very graciously. I am grateful also to the loyal preachers within my district who have continually co-operated with me in securing the results of this year of which we are mutually proud.

My desire is to make separate mention of each pastor's work in this report; hence these references to the various items in their totals to the statistical records of the conference secretary as they are transcribed from the pastors' individual reports.

A strong effort has been put forth in behalf of our financial interests throughout the district and in spite of adverse conditions in many places, the reports will equal last year's and possibly show increase.

Emphasis has been placed upon the evangelistic work this year in this district, with results for which we are glad. You are invited to note that every circuit and station in this district without a single exception, has had a revival this year; 1,931 conversions are recorded and these are not the ostentatious effervescence of sensational campaigns but rather the natural response to evangelistic awakening and hard work. It is interesting to note in this connection that 921 additions have been made to the church in this district also.

The Sunday Schools have maintained their numerical strength while they have increased in efficiency.

The young people's work has sustained an advance. The Senior Epworth League has 14 chapters in this district with an enrollment of 588 and the Junior Leagues number 6 splendid chapters with 395 members. Pastors are taking renewed interest in their young people with a response that is gladdening and telling in the general church efficiency.

Prayer and class meetings are observed in most of the churches.

The Methodist Advocate-Journal has a better report than last year, for while a loss was reported to our last conference, we now report that our paper has held its own and we feel the situation is ripe for some fine gains if a vigorous stimulus will be given to the subscriptions by the publishing office.

The Committee on Education will make good reports for our two schools, one at Baileyton and the other at Chuckey.

A noticeable feature of our district conference at Roan Mountain last July was the report of our ladies' work. The Woman's Missionary Society and the Woman's Foreign Society and the Ladies' Aid Society have each acquired new chapters and are doing a fine work. Their substantial aid is greatly appreciated at their respective charges.

A brief survey of the separate stations and circuits will be of interest to all.

Rev. T. E. Goodman has done a fine work at Baileyton. His wife has sustained a long illness which for a time hindered his work, but his report is withal a creditable one.

The Bloomingdale charge has had a splendid year. Brother D. L. Howell, the pastor, has worked to get good results and his report will show advancement on all lines. He has recorded 82 conversions and 72 additions.

A new church has been built at Arcadia, worth $1,500; dedicated by Rev. R. M. Millard and Rev. A. C. Ketrin, assisted by the pastor, on fourth Sunday in September.

Rev. A. C. Ketrin, the efficient pastor at Chuckey, has experienced a fine year in spite of three months' illness. Rev. E. W. Ackard, a local preacher, assisted effectively on this work; 138 conversions are reported on this charge and all claims paid in full.

Elizabethton members have come to love the pastor, Brother J. F. Rowe, who is one among the best in the district. His efforts have brought things to pass; all claims paid in full.

Rev. F. D. Watson is proving to be the right man in the right place in his work on the Fall Branch circuit. His people love him and stand by him.

Greeneville has passed through one of its finest years of history; 103 conversions, 47 additions to the church, and all claims paid in full are items in its fine report. The pastor, Rev. W. L. Oliver, has raised $1,340.00 on church indebtedness and for improvements.

Greeneville circuit has been glad to greet Rev. I. B. Leonard with large congregations and to yield to his energetic work, 110 conversions; 54 persons have united with the church on this work. The Sunday Schools have attained 882 scholars as evidence of their growth.

Johnson City station was never in better condition. Under the leadership of Rev. J. M. Emert, the faithful pastor, this church has had a great year. It has raised $1,595.00 outside of the salaries and benevolences and these claims are all paid in full. The pastor reports 40 conversions and 30 net gain in membership.

Kingsport circuit has been heroically served by Brother W. R. Byerly. This good pastor has experienced great sadness during this year's pastorate, death having invaded the home and taken away for a while one of his daughters. Another daughter met with a serious accident and for days her life, too, hung in the balance, but she is now happily recovered. This circuit, however, presents a good report.

Limestone charge, under Brother W. C. Winslow, has a good report, showing 82 conversions and 26 additions to the church besides all claims paid in full.

Rev. R. L. Stapleton is the wide awake and beloved pastor at Morristown. This station is making a steady growth in attendance, membership, and influence. The pastor reports 57 conversions, 33 new members and all departments of his church in a healthy condition; $825.00 of the $1,400.00 indebtedness on the parsonage has been subscribed already by the membership and the balance is in sight. All other claims are met in full.

Rev. W. S. Bandy has been abundant in his labors on the Morristown circuit. He has raised $186, which has been applied to church improvements on his work. More than $1,500 has been raised with which to build a new church at Mt. Airy. Materials are being prepared and work begins at once on this new structure.

Brother A. A. Newman has been hard at work on one of the best circuits in the district and reports 53 conversions and 48 new members. The folks of this Mosheim circuit love Brother Newman and support him faithfully in his labors.

Rev. G. W. Matney, the alert pastor at Mountain City and Butler, has been doing a fine work in this splendid field. His churches have been strengthened by his direction.

Rev. M. H. Rambo, pastor on the Mountain City circuit, has done a fine work. He has raised $700 and liquidated the debt on the parsonage and made some improvements on one of the churches and has a good subscription toward a new church at Trade.

Newport station looks like a new church since the improvements made by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Harmon, for which $700 were raised. All claims are paid in full.

Rev. D. F. Smith has labored abundantly on the Newport circuit and has secured 66 conversions and 30 new members. A new church has been started on Webb's Creek and when finished will be worth $1,000.

Parrottsville charge under the leadership of Rev. N. K. Rowe, has sustained a wonderful year; 88 conversions, 53 additions to the church; 901 enrolled full members and 717 Sunday School scholars, are a few items which he calls to our attention. One new church has been built at Beach Bottom, worth $1,500, was dedicated last June by the District Superintendent, assisted by Revs. W. T. Senter, M. M. Murrell, N. R. Rowe and A. A. Newman.

Roan Mountain circuit has experienced a phenomenal year. The untiring labors of Rev. J. E. Milburn have resulted in 177 conversions and 92 new members, $23.00 increase on benevolences over last year and all claims met in full. He has also purchased a new school building from the county and this will be converted into a church.

Rev. J. F. Reed has had a good year on the Rogersville and White Horn work. His vigorous efforts to bring about good results have by no means failed. Two revivals resulted in much good besides 36 conversions and 11 new members. This charge pays more on benevolences according to its ability than any other in the district.

Rutledge circuit presents a splendid report of the work of its good pastor, Rev. W. D. Humphries. He has had 121 conversions and 99 accessions to the church, the major portion of the latter resulting from his revivals. The benevolences are in advance of last year and all salaries paid in full.

Sneedville and Thorn Hill have a good report. Rev. Solon Mcneese, a local preacher, was sent to this work by the last annual conference, but declined to go. Rev. W. A. Thompson was thereupon assigned to this work but he also did not go. Then Levi Murray, a third local preacher, was appointed and immediately took charge of the circuit and has done a fine work. He has had 39 conversions and 15 new members added to the membership. He has completed a new church also, called Liberty, valued at about $1,000, which was dedicated last April by Rev. A. C. Ketron, assisted by the pastor.

Sulphur Springs has had a great year under its pastor, Rev. R. E. Walker. The Johnson City District Camp Meeting, lasting ten days, convened in the bounds of this charge. Rev. J. M. Melear, Editor of our Methodist Advocate-Journal, preached on the first Sunday and Monday. This camp meeting resulted in nearly a score of conversions and greatly stimulated the church. The pastor reports 82 conversions and 33 additions to the charge. This work never fails to bring up all claims.

Rev. C. L. Poulston has wrought splendidly in the Surgoinsville territory. He reports 57 conversions and 15 additions and the benevolences, though not large, double last year's.

Rev. T. O. Brumley, pastor on the Telford circuit, has had a prosperous year. His report shows 140 conversions and 82 new members received. The Sunday Schools on this circuit have been growing healthily for the past few years. It was thought that the high water mark was reached last year at 942 scholars but the tide rose this year to 988.

Unicoi circuit has had unparalleled success under the vigorous work of its pastor, Rev. W. E. O. Robeson. He reports 236 conversions and a net gain of 76 in membership. His benevolences almost double last year's. All ministerial claims are met in full. There is a fine brick community church at Piney Flats valued at $6,000, in which our church possesses one-fourth interest. This church was dedicated last summer by Dr. John M. Crowe, pastor of the Munsey Memorial M. E. Church, South, of Johnson City.

KNOXVILLE DISTRICT

W. K. Harris, Superintendent

In presenting this, my second report as the superintendent of the Knoxville district, I may say that the year has been one of unusual difficulty. The year began with a feeling of unrest among the people of several charges. A number of changes among the pastors became necessary early in the conference year which seriously affected the charges concerned. An unusual amount of sickness among our pastors and their families has made other changes necessary and has hindered others from the best work. In each of the following charges a change of pastors was made during the year, viz: Oakwood, Knoxville circuit, Asbury and South Knoxville, Jefferson City and Friendsville. Some of these changes were made under disturbed conditions which vitally affected the work of the year.

The Methodist Forward Movement, inaugurated last year under the leadership of Bishop Henderson, reached its climax in a district-wide revival campaign in the month of April. Much personal work had been done, especially in the city churches, for some weeks preceding the meetings in the churches. Practically all the city and suburban churches united in the campaign and a number of the circuits were represented. The meetings closed with the passion week and resurrection Sunday. A fine spirit of co-operation was seen and felt among the ministers and laymen. Many conversions were reported and a goodly number added to the church. During the entire campaign from May, 1915, to May, 1916, more than a thousand persons were added to the church, more than five hundred took the Time Legion pledge and nearly two score pledged themselves to definite Christian service whenever, however, and wherever the Lord may call.

Many successful revivals have been held by the pastors on their own charges while some have heard the Macedonian call and have gone to the assistance of pastors in charges other than their own.

A very successful union revival was held at Sevierville by J. C

Patty and O. W. Stapleton. More than two hundred conversions were reported and fifty-three added to our church. In two other meetings on this charge, conducted by J. O. Cox and the pastor, as many more were added to the church.

Church building enterprises have been noticeably hindered by the prospect of Methodist Unification. In every place the people are delighted in the hope of a united Methodism and in some places are impatient to await the necessary legislation by the General Conferences. Nowhere have we been able to interest the people in a building project if there is a probability that it cannot be used to an advantage by the united church. One small chapel has been erected on the Pigeon Forge charge at Huskey's Grove. At Park City we need a ten thousand dollar building but the trustees think it unwise at this time to begin such a building and have decided to erect instead a fine bungalow on the rear of the splendid new lot on Virginia avenue. This will face Chestnut street and will be finished inside without partitions and used as a place of worship until the new church is erected when it will be completed and used as a minister's residence. A new parsonage is under way on the Fair Garden charge. The lot has been provided and a large part of the material is on the ground with sufficient cash and good subscriptions to complete the building. The Jones' Chapel parsonage has been newly furnished with more than two hundred dollars' worth of heavy furniture. A debt on the property amounting to about five hundred dollars has been paid. Maryville has added more than a hundred dollars' worth of furniture to the parsonage. Lonsdale and Second Church have each spent more than a thousand dollars in repairing and beautifying their respective church buildings. The pastor at Sevierville has shown commendable energy in raising the indebtedness on that church, which amounted to about fourteen hundred dollars.

Perhaps the most noted building project, however, is the new college building at Murphy College in Sevierville. Dr. E. A. Bishop, our worthy president of that institution, has worked heroically for this building for a number of years and has succeeded beyond our fondest hopes. The building when completed will cost $12,000, and will make possible a fine increase in our student body of that most helpful institution. An imperative need for this school is a home for girls such as is provided by the Woman's Home Missionary Society at Athens and many other schools of our church.

Some salaries will be deficient. No district or conference sustentation fund was provided and we have felt the need of it. In many cases a discouraged class may be persuaded to provide the larger part of a deficiency if we are able to provide a small part of it. These deficiencies occur almost entirely on charges where the work has been disturbed by change of pastors or in some other manner. The salaries are entirely inadequate for the needs of the pastors and their families. We have on this district eight men who must provide each for a wife and seven or more children from a salary of six or eight hundred and fifty dollars, and house. The cost of living has increased at a much more rapid rate than the increase in salaries making the financial problems of the district increasingly difficult. The floods on some of the rivers damaged many of our best people and in some cases they have been unable to pay the usual amounts for the work of the church. The reports indicate that the benevolent collections are about the same as last year. The raising of the disciplinary benevolences has become more difficult since we have doubled the claim for conference claimants. The people do not seem to understand that these items are to be made a part of the budget as salaries and in most cases they are raised as a benevolence by a special collection.

We have now twenty Epworth Leagues in the district and almost every one of them has had a prosperous year.

The Laymen's Association under the leadership of Dr. M. S. Roberts and his associates, F. W. Biddle and C. O. Fowler, has done very effective work. A number of teams of laymen have visited many of the charges and their work has been highly appreciated. Especial mention should be made of the work of W. I. Marshall, who gave his vacation from the hardware store to visiting the charges and speaking in the interest of better Sunday Schools and a closer fellowship with God.

Many charges, pastors and laymen deserve personal mention. Their names should be on the honor roll. But we must refrain except for the few charges who have added more than fifty members, as follows, viz: Chestnut Hill, 66; East Main Avenue, 60; First Church, 107; Second Church, 62; Trinity, 68; Sevierville, 105. While Maryville was in many respects the most difficult field in the district the pastor has won the hearts of the people of his church and they have so nobly responded to his efforts that, though no revival was held during the year, 22 conversions are reported; 43 members are added to the church, all salaries paid in full, benevolences equal with last year, the indebtedness of $140 from last year all paid in full with fifty dollars in the treasury; while friends outside the church donated to the pastor with special request that it be not reported on salary sixty dollars as an appreciation of his services in the town.

Many blunders have been made by the district superintendent for which he takes the whole responsibility. For the victories we give glory to God and the pastors, than whom as a whole there was never a more loyal and devoted band of men, and to the fine body of laymen of which this district is composed.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

Recognizing the Bible as the Word of God, the foundation of the laws which govern our Republic, the pioneer and promoter of all political and ecclesiastical freedom, and recognizing in the American Bible Society a very important agency for the salvation of the world by its world-wide distribution of that Word which God has promised shall not return to Him void, and realizing the need as possibly greater than ever before of funds to help place this Word in the hands of soldiers on the many battlefields of the world, be it therefore resolved, First, that we pledge anew our loyalty and devotion to its work, and pledge ourselves to at least give every congregation a chance to contribute thereto. Second, that we rejoice in the wonderful success which has attended its labors during the 100 years of its existence, it having distributed more than 117,000,000 copies of the Bible in whole or in part, in more than 100 languages, and suggest that as far as may be practical we observe in a suitable manner the celebration of its Centennial Sunday December 10th, 1916, calling special attention to its world-wide opportunity and the world-wide demands made upon it.

Accounts of the respective Districts of Holston Conference as to the disbursements of the missionary appropriations:

CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT—REV. J. A. MITCHELL, District Superintendent: Accounts correct so far as data submitted; explanation accepted where accounting could not be submitted.

CHURCH LITERATURE

The Methodist people have every reason to be gratified concerning their church literature. Modest in its beginnings our publishing concern has become the largest producer of Christian literature in the world. Notwithstanding the high cost of paper and printing the proceeds from the Book Concern this year have been very gratifying. The fact that we have the largest publishing house in the world is no doubt due to the fact of the fine quality of Christian literature that it is sending out. And this committee recommends that the preachers and the laity buy all their church literature from the Methodist Book Concern.

We realize the importance of the Methodist Advocate-Journal in this territory. We deeply appreciate the editorial work and the mechanical appearance of the paper, and we heartily endorse the advance steps that have been taken by this conference for its increased circulation. This paper meets the wants in the South that cannot easily be met by any other paper of our church.

DEACONESS WORK

Appreciating as we do the great work that women are doing as deaconesses of our church, and realizing their special fitness for such service for God and humanity, we recommend that our pastors put greater stress on the same, and also that the parents freely and gladly consecrate their daughters to this kind of service.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The committee reports that all records of district conferences, in so far as access could be had to them, are in good order.

Special mention should be made of the splendid condition of the records of the Bristol District.

We recommend that hereafter each district send to the Annual Conference a copy of its meetings held during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

We as a conference can but repeat that which has been hitherto expressed in that the generous co-operation of our Board of Education with our schools, in standardizing curricula, faculties and plants, has been in the highest degree helpful.

Its thorough and painstaking inspection of educational conditions that now obtain throughout the country, promises much for the church and is expressive of a commendable forward movement.

We heartily commend and approve as we did last year, the apportionment by the General Conference Commission on Finance, of the one Public Educational collection authorized by the Discipline, being eighty per cent. at the order of the Conference and twenty per cent. for the Board of Education.

The publication of The Christian Student, the Board's official organ, is decidedly helpful.

It contains most useful information relative to Educational interests and should be widely read.

Dr. Thomas Nicholson, now Bishop, for eight consecutive years served the church in the capacity of Corresponding Secretary of our Board of Education. His administration was eminently successful; and especially do we desire to record our appreciation of his interest in our schools of the South.

His promotion to the episcopacy we predict will bring a worthy climax to his eventful life.

Abram. W. Harris, L. L. D., the worthy successor of Bishop Nicholson, brings to this office a wide and varied experience in the educational work of our church. We welcome him among us and anticipate for him a most successful administration.

UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA

Brethren:

The University of Chattanooga is an institution of higher learning owned by the Methodist Episcopal Church as represented in the General Conference. The assets of the Institution at this time, including grounds, buildings and endowment, amounts to more than $1,000,000. The combined campus comprises 33 acres. There are sixteen buildings in all. The endowment fund at the close of the present endowment campaign will be slightly more than $500,000.

The Board of Trustees of the Institution are thirty in number and by the Charter of the Institution, two-thirds of this number must be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. On the Board of Trustees at present there are twenty members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, seven of whom are ministers and three of whom are Bishops. The President of the Board of Trustees is a Bishop of the Church, the Secretary of the Board is also a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Executive Committee is composed of seven members, four of whom are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The University has been constituted the central institution of higher learning of our denomination in the South. The Board of Education of our Church, accordingly, is seeking in every possible way to affiliate with the University, our several academies and seminaries in the adjoining states. The success of this effort is seen in the fact that we have in the University this year students from the following academies and secondary schools: Murphy College, Oakland Seminary, McLemoresville Collegiate Institute, Baxter Seminary, Mt. Zion Seminary, Epworth Seminary, John H. Snead Seminary and Wesleyan Academy. Recent graduates of the University are principals of the following academies: Mt. Zion Seminary, Epworth Seminary and Washington Collegiate Institute.

The Board of Education of our Church in addition to making a subscription of $48,000 toward the endowment of the University, makes each year loans to worthy and promising students of the University amounting to approximately $2,000.

Another fact bearing upon the relation of our University to the Church may be seen in the fact that there are this year in the student body of the College and the Athens School more than thirty young men who are preparing for the ministry besides some other students who will enter special forms of Christian work. Our graduates receive Teachers' Certificates in this State without examination. Six or eight of our charges in the Holston Conference are supplied by students of the Institution.

The student attendance for the year which has just opened shows a very substantial increase over last year both in the College and in the Athens School. Last year there were enrolled in the academic departments for the nine months, 450 students. In the Summer Session there were enrolled 402, making the total enrollment for the year in all departments 852. If the same rate of increase continues for the second semester the total attendance in the academic departments for the year show an increase of twenty per cent over last year.

There is an increasing tendency for graduates of our Athens School to go on to the College for the completion of their education. Five members of last year's class entered the College last month.

The academic earnestness of the student body is very satisfactory. This is noticeable particularly in the classes matriculating for the first time. Students matriculated promptly this autumn and the work of the class rooms was begun without delay. Literary Society activities have opened with good interest. The Glee Clubs and other musical organizations which ordinarily begin activities in mid-year are at work now.

The moral tone of the campus is very satisfactory. The Christian Associations, both among the young men and the young women, have energetic management. Delegates were sent last summer to the student Conference at Black Mountain. This has given an impetus to the Association work for the year. Only a small minority of the student body are without Church membership or affiliation. A majority of the students are Methodists, both in the College and in the Athens School. The Baptists and Presbyterians come next in point of numbers.

Currency has been given in some quarters to a report that the faculty of the University permit and encourage dancing among the students. This is not true; they do neither. They have specific instructions to do neither and propose in this as in other particulars to be loyal to the Church and to be careful to safeguard the best interests of the student body in every particular.

The one problem of great concern to the Institution at the present moment is the successful closing of the endowment campaign which was opened in 1912. The last day of the campaign is December 1st. In order to make settlement in full with the General Education Board and to receive the proportion of subscription promised by them it is necessary to collect the full amount subscribed locally and to provide for all of the accumulated indebtedness of the University. Within the four years that the subscription has been running, there has been an inevitable shrinkage due to death and other causes amounting to some $50,000. It will, therefore, be necessary to secure new subscriptions covering this large amount. To close this campaign successfully within the next few days will mean securing for the University in lump sum $51,000.00, which was conditionally pledged by two sources in New York. But very much more important than this even, it will place the institution upon the preferred list of 103 American Colleges which will receive in perpetuity the benefaction of the General Education Board. This fact alone would almost guarantee the future of the University financially. To fail in this supreme effort, on the other hand, would mean calamitous and irreparable loss, and would give the Institution a set-back from which it would not recover for many years. It is necessary to have the full and immediate co-operation of all the friends of the Institution at this moment.

The University craves the hearty and continuous support of all our people. The co-operation of our ministers and official laymen will be of very great value. With increased facilities and at the present rate of increase of our student body it is evident that in two or three years more, we are to have a very much larger group of students than ever before and the ministry of the Institution will widen beyond the expectation of its friends.

FRED W. HIXSON, President.

MURPHY COLLEGE

Murphy College has entered upon its 25th year, with an increase of 25 per cent in its higher departments. The total registration for 1916 was 437, this number for the year being probably the best in the history of the school. Miss Esker McNelly of the Intermediate Department, Mr. Victor H. Klein of the Science and Higher English, and Miss C. Evelyn Bishop of the Music Department, declined re-election. Their places have been filled by the election of Mr. F. A. Roller, University of Tennessee, a teacher of several years' experience; Miss Mae Flanagan, class of 1914, and Miss Ella Miller, an accomplished musician of several years' experience. Dr. E. A. Bishop and his nine assistants are doing a great work for the educational uplift of this Mountain section.

The Trustees have let the contract for the addition to the administration building; it is to be two stories with full basement, 53 by 63 feet. The addition will cost between $11,000 and $12,000 and will provide accommodation for 200 students. This building is greatly needed to take care of the large number who wish to attend the Institution.

There is great need of additional dormitory facilities, especially for the girls. It is earnestly hoped that some one can be found soon who will provide a home for our young women.

The religious interest last year was deep and strong. The two Christian Associations are very active and the revival services brought substantial gains for the church. Rev. Richard Millard spent a week in the school with a fruitage of 21 decisions and 63 signers of Life Covenant cards. Later a union revival service conducted by Brother Patty and Brother Stapleton swept the community and the school, gathering into the fold of Christ almost every young man and woman of the Institution.

E. A. BISHOP, President.

OAKLAND SEMINARY

Oakland Seminary began its work for the present scholastic year, September 4, with a very large enrollment. Several changes have been made in the Faculty from last year. The teaching force for this year is as follows:

L. E. Easterly, Ph. B., Principal; Mrs. J. N. Pierce, Ph. B.; Mrs.

J. F. King; Miss Elsa Fields; Miss Flora Overholser, and Miss Sara Porter Lyle.

This school has an ideal location, splendid buildings, and is in a community that is far above the average, which co-operates with the school at all times.

The course at present consists of a full four year high school course. Almost one-half the students are doing high school work.

The main building, which was enlarged three years ago, is entirely too small for its present enrollment, and other additions are demanded. A well equipped laboratory is badly needed. The school has a very complete Domestic Science Department, and the work is being carried on very successfully.

Thus far we have an enrollment of 210, with bright prospects of several others coming in later. Another pressing need is a dormitory for the accommodation of those students living outside the community. While the people of Baileyton very hospitably open their homes to the students these accommodations are wholly inadequate, and numbers of worthy students have to be turned away.

Some concrete walks are to be built, and several other minor improvements are being contemplated for this year. With these improvements, and the continued support and co-operation of the people of Baileyton and surrounding community, this promises to be one of the most successful years the school has ever experienced.

WESLEYAN ACADEMY

The Wesleyan Academy at Chuckey, Tennessee, began its work of the present scholastic year on September 5th, 1916.

The enrollment at the opening surpassed in numbers that of any previous year in the history of the school.

Dr. W. A. Wright, an experienced and popular educator, is continued as Principal

The following teachers constitute the Board of Instruction: Prof. W. A. Wright, Principal; Miss E. Maude Cox; Miss Jessie R. Gray; Miss Stanna Hawkins; Miss Lillian Gillespie and Miss Mamie Bitner.

All of this corps of teachers have had Academic and college training and are fully competent for the work of their several departments. They are all worthy and take special interest in the moral welfare of those under their tuition.

Of the last year's graduating class, fourteen in number, eleven are now in college.

The department of music under the direction of Miss Bitner, offers the best facilities on reasonable terms.

Some material improvements on the school buildings have recently been made, and supplies much needed have been secured.

The increasing demand for greater capacity in buildings is daily manifest.

The people of Chuckey and vicinity are very generous in opening their homes for the accommodation of non resident students.

Board and rooms in the dormitory and in private homes can be secured at reasonable rates, while some students choose to board themselves.

The school year consists of eight months, divided into two terms of four months each.

The generous spirit shown in material aid from special friends is gratefully acknowledged.

Dr. F. M. Cones, Field Secretary, devotes all his time to the general interests of this school.

With this efficient faculty daily at their posts, and a due co-operation on the part of patrons and friends, Wesleyan Academy may expect brighter days.

F. M. CONES,
W. S. GRANT,
C. V. BELLAMY,
E. A. BISHOP,
Committee.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

With gratefulness of heart we recognize the wholesome state of the Epworth League in the conference. There are about 65 chapters of the Epworth League and many wide-awake chapters of the Junior League, constituting a working force of splendid young life which is telling for good in this territory.

Over one hundred of this number are engaged in Mission Study classes. We believe that many more chapters of both the Epworth and Junior Leagues could and should be organized and maintained in the bounds of the conference.

We therefore recommend that the pastors both in towns and country take more interest in the league work, and thus encourage and help their young people in preparing themselves better for life's work. The hope of our church is in the proper care of our young people.

We heartily express our high appreciation of the fine work of our worthy conference Epworth League officers and pledge our earnest support to them in their plans and work throughout the year.

GEORGE S. BALES,
I. B. LEONARD,
C. N. SADLER,
Committee.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

In as much as the cause of Missions is one of the oldest and greatest institutions of the Methodist church, and by reason of the great war now going on among the nations, her needs have increased enormously and will increase more by reason of the opportunities that will come when the war is over. And further, it seems in the providence of God that the church in the United States was never so well favored in money and means as at present. Therefore be it resolved, that we of the Holston Conference make this cause a subject of daily prayer and large gifts that we may answer that great call of the Lord Jesus, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." Let us urge our people everywhere to systematic giving in both the family and church.

W. F. PITTS,
CFCERO DOBBS,
W. S. BANDY,
Committee.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY

As a result of the work of the Society we have 350,000 colored members and 2,000 ministers to supply these with pastors and intelligent Christian leaders. The 21 schools of the Freedmen's Aid Society with their 351 teachers and 5,804 students must be maintained. The solution of the race problem is not to be found wholly on industrial and commercial lines. The uplift of a race means in addition moral and spiritual standards in accordance with the teachings of Jesus, and these are secured only through the Christian school and the Christian Church. To maintain our present standards and advance them further, we must maintain our church schools.

We recommend, therefore, that each pastor observe Lincoln Day as directed by the General Conference, and that in addition to raising the full apportionment for the work of the Society, an effort be made to secure subscriptions toward a Thank-offering of $100,000 to be used for new buildings and increased equipment sorely needed by these schools.

We further recommend that the program and literature prepared by the Society be distributed in our Sunday Schools and public congregations. This literature can be secured on request without cost by sending to the office of the Society at 220 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, a postal card request.

R. L. STAPLETON,
A. B. MCKENZIE,
Committee.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Realizing the sacredness of the Holy Sabbath and the widespread and increasing desecration of the same, and being aware of the baneful effect produced by many amusements which attract our people from the Sunday services; be it therefore

Resolved, that we, as a conference, enter our solemn protest against all unnecessary work or amusements on the Lord's Day.

M. H. RAMBO,

G. W. MATNEY.

STATE OF CHURCH

The church of today is facing perhaps the most important day of her history. We are facing political, moral and social conditions not hitherto known. We note with gratitude the manner in which the Methodist Episcopal Church is doing her part in this great work.

We are very grateful to Almighty God for the success of our church this conference year in the number of conversions and accessions reported and the spiritual condition of the church and also the splendid brotherly feeling. Therefore be it

Resolved, that we rededicate ourselves to Almighty God for a more consecrated service and pray that we may be more successful this year in bringing souls to Christ than any year in the history of our conference. Be it

Resolved, second, that we pray God to make every pastor a true evangelist and if it should seem wise to call evangelistic help we employ those who may be appointed by our Bishop.

Resolved, last, that we note with thankful hearts the splendid interest shown by our Methodism for Church union with our sister Methodism.

JOHN SANDERS,

W. M. BULL,

J. T. BIRD,

Committee.

SOCIAL SERVICE

Whereas, the Methodist Episcopal Church from its foundation has recognized the value of Social Service, and Mr. Wesley, its founder, inaugurated institutional work as a part of his great organization, and whereas, renewed great stress has in recent years been placed upon this form of Christian experience,

Resolved, (1), that we emphasize the importance of this form of Christian service. (2) That we deprecate any emphasis on this service which may have a tendency to substitute deeds, however good they may be, for a spiritual experience or a devout life. But where the Social Service is the outgrowth of a spiritual life and the expression of Christly love for men, we read in it the meaning of Christ's words wherein he said, "In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me.

BUSINESS INTERESTS OF THE METHODIST ADVOCATE-JOURNAL

Your committee appointed to consider the feasibility of purchasing a home and printing outfit for the Methodist Advocate-Journal has, after investigation, decided that it will be better at present to turn all our thought and effort toward an earnest and aggressive campaign to increase the circulation of the Advocate to 10,000 bona fide subscribers. With this accomplished all the business interests can be more easily and successfully realized.

J. J. ROBINETTE.
A. C. GODDARD.

Your committee on circulation of the Methodist Advocate-Journal submit the following:

The committee recommends the following apportionment out of 6,000 new subscribers for the paper in the area, 3500 to the Holston Conference, to be divided as follows: Bristol District, 500; Johnson City, 850; Knoxville, 850; Harriman, 600; Chattanooga, 700; total, 3500.

We further recommend that each District Superintendent immediately make a prorata division of the number to the various charges as soon as the new year's work begins.

UNIFICATION OF METHODISM.

We, your committee on the Organic Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, beg leave to submit the following report:

First—We are in hearty accord with the spirit, sentiment and desire for the union of the various branches of Episcopal Methodism, and heartily endorse the action of our general conference at Saratoga Springs in May last. We contemplate with spiritual delight a reunited Methodism for America, and by faith see in the not distant future an invincible host standing like the everlasting hills in defense of the essential principles of Protestant Christianity, and we shall earnestly pray that the great Head of the Church in His own appointed way may bring the movement looking toward union to a most speedy and satisfactory consummation.

Second—We believe, however, and therefore recommend to all our people, that the most effectual method of promoting and hastening the union of these branches of the same denomination is to guard carefully every denominational interest and proceed with the development of all our enterprises and at the same time cultivate a deeper and more fraternal regard for each other and thus bring about a closer and more Christ-like spirit of co-operation in all the work of God, and thus prepare our people for a complete and perfect union when it shall come.

Third—We shall hail with joy and gladness every wise and sincere effort in the interest of union and deprecate and discourage whatever tends to hinder or retard it.

J. M. MELEAR.
W. L. OLIVER.

BRANCH MEETING

Whereas, the Cincinnati Branch of the W. F. M. S. holds its 1917 session in First Church, Knoxville, and whereas, they have a stated time of meeting, namely, the second Tuesday in October, and whereas, our Conference does not have a stated time, therefore,

Resolved, that we respectfully petition the Board of Bishops to fix the date of our next session at a time not to conflict with the above mentioned meeting.

A. C. GODDARD,
O. R. TARWATER,
J. J. ROBINETTE.

BRISTOL CHURCH

Whereas, the trustees of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Bristol, Tenn., have made and are now making a heroic effort to establish a congregation of our denomination in that splendid city, and in the creation of their church property, centrally located and admirably adapted to their purposes, and easily worth $20,000, they found it necessary to incur a debt of $5000, and

Whereas, they received no donation from the Board of Church Extension. Therefore,

Resolved, that the Holston Conference, in whose bounds the said church is located, hereby request the Conference Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to recommend to the Parent Board at Philadelphia an emergency appropriation of $3500 to be paid out of the appropriations and our collections for the Board until said amount has been applied for the relief of said church, this action to take effect as soon as applications from this conference now pending shall have been disposed of.

J. J. ROBINETTE.
C. K. HAMONEY.
E. O. WOODYARD.
O. R. TARWATER.

CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

Resolved, that we recommend that the District Superintendents apportion to their pastoral charges, respectively, an amount equal to one half of one per cent of the pastor's salary, not including house rent, for the relief of our churches entertaining the conference sessions, said funds to be available as the conference committee on entertainment may deem necessary.

J. J. ROBINETTE.
C. K. HAMONEY.
A. C. GODDARD.

ENDOWMENT FUND CAMPAIGN

1. Whereas, a general intensive campaign for the increase of endowment funds for conference claimants has been inaugurated in a large number of conferences throughout our connection, and reports indicate that this movement is meeting with marvelous success;

2. Whereas, the Board of Conference Claimants has decided to use all its influence and a large part of its income in assisting the annual conferences throughout the church in planning, inaugurating and pushing such a campaign to a successful consummation, by furnishing the necessary literature, and expert workers from the General Office.

3. And whereas, our own conference has already too long neglected this important matter, be it

Resolved, (1) That we are convinced that the time for an intensive campaign for the raising of a $50,000 endowment fund for our conference claimants has come; that therefore we recommend, (2) to appoint a permanent Conference Fund Commission, consisting of the five District Superintendents, one layman and one minister from each district, with the Resident Bishop of this area as chairman. For the purpose of taking this matter under advisement and determining upon the most feasible plan for projecting and launching an intensive campaign in this conference for an endowment fund of $50,000. This Commission shall meet at Knoxville at the call of the Bishop within three months after the adjournment of this conference session and shall then determine upon the time and program of the campaign. And as we are convinced that a campaign of education and publicity should precede the soliciting of pledges and contributions, we recommend that at least six months be given to this preliminary work, beginning with the general observance of a day set apart by the Commission as Veterans' Day and followed by a general distribution of literature bearing upon this subject.

We further recommend appointment by the Bishop of a Campaign Manager to take charge of the intensive work in soliciting funds for the permanent endowment fund as soon as may be advisable.

Total-----			$10,634.53

The above $6700.00 of mortgage notes are by approved and solvent individuals; are secured by first mortgage deeds of trust upon improved real estate; all bear interest at 6 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually; are less than 60 per cent. of the appraised value of the real estate; and are further protected by $8,200.00 of fire insurance upon the improvements.

The above $2620.00 of donation notes is the aggregate of the principal of sundry notes ranging in amount from $25.00 to $900.00 of various dates, all bearing interest at 6 per cent per annum from date, given for subscription to the fund.

We believe these generous subscribers are paying their interest as promptly and regularly as they find practicable, but as the Trustees cannot depend with certainty upon prompt payment by all, it is thought better to omit the interest as an asset.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. GRIGSBY, Chairman.

J. M. MELEAR, Secretary.

HERMAN FERGER, Treasurer.

COMPLIMENTARY

Resolved; first, that we extend to the people of Johnson City our earnest gratitude for the warm hospitality and royal entertainment which they have unanimously accorded us and for their untiring efforts to provide us with every facility for our comfort and convenience in the despatch of our conference business.

Resolved; second, that we offer special thanks to the pastor, Rev. J. M. Emert, and his entertainment committee, for the splendid reception given to us on the night previous to the conference sessions.

Resolved; third, that we acknowledge with appreciation the faithful and efficient services rendered by the secretary, treasurer, statistician, postmaster, and their assistants.

Resolved; fourth, that we here record our appreciation for the visits of the various connectional men and others whom our general boards and church societies have sent to us, and that we express our gratification for the splendid addresses and helpful messages which these have brought to us.

Resolved; fifth, that we offer our sincere admiration and appreciation to our new resident bishop, Frank M. Bristol, for his splendid and inspiring addresses, for his big-hearted brotherliness toward us all, for his careful and patient attention to every detail of our interests, for his business-like and rapid despatch of the conference routine matters. In token of the sincerity of our esteem we heartily offer our whole co-operation with our president in the work of the Kingdom of God in this area and pledge him our hearts, our muscles, our brain, and our lives.

Resolved; sixth, and finally, that we here make devout and grateful acknowledgement of the continual mercies of God, our Father, and that we entrust ourselves wholly into His loving care and pledge all that we have and are, to His service.

(Signed)

L. D. HAMIL, Chairman.

W. R. BYERLY.
